BMW S 1000 XR

Make no concessions, demand it all. From yourself, but also from your machine. Always fighting for the racing line: every curve a few degrees deeper, a few millimeters tighter. Mile after mile.

With the new S 1000 XR, you have a motorcycle that also makes no compromises. It combines athleticism and long-distance performance in perfect form. Its sporty aggressiveness comes from the RR.

Its outstanding ergonomics with the upright, relaxed seat position, however, allows you to fight for every curve and straightaway all day.
